THE GENERAL ELECTION - A Catholic's response The Bishops' Conference has developed information and guidance on key issues of importance to us, as Catholics, to help inform how we vote. Including: Criminal Justice, Domestic poverty, family life and taxation, Education, Environment, International relations, human rights and peacebuilding, Life Issues, and Migration to name a few. Cardinal Vincent Nichols, President of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, has recorded a message encouraging Catholics, particularly young adults, to be "willing to get involved and vote" as the opportunity to vote in a general election is a "privilege". Please visit the Archdiocese of Birmingham's Website to find out more information. Their address is printed clearly on the front of this newsletter.

CHURCHES IN BICESTER, GENERAL ELECTION HUSTINGS, Wednesday 26 June 2024 St Edburg's Church 730pm. For all Christians, deciding how we are going to vote is an important decision. For the past three General Elections, C.I.B have joined together to run General Election Hustings meetings: public meetings where people can listen to and ask questions of the candidates who hope to represent them in the UK Parliament. We hope that all six of our local candidates will be present. Meetings sponsored by the churches provide an opportunity for genuine political debate on neutral territory. Do come and join us. No need to book, just turn up. For information, speak to Deacon Nick, or see adverts in this week's online Oxford Mail and Bicester Advertiser. The Parish Environmental Group would like you to put thought to: Who should I vote for on 4th July? Which party has the strongest commitment to green energy and a phasing out of fossil fuels?

BLESSING OF PETS: This is the first time I am inviting all pet lovers to have their pets blessed. Please come along on Sunday, 30th June at 2.00pm. We shall gather outside church for a very short service followed by blessing of pets.

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Entrance antiphon: The Lord is the strength of his people, a saving refuge for the one he has anointed. Save your people, Lord, and bless your heritage, and govern them for ever.

First Reading "Here your proud waves shall break." Job 38: 1-11

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said: Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther: here your proud waves shall break.

The word of the Lord
All: Thanks be to God

O give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures for ever (4V)

Responsorial Psalm

Second Reading "Now the new creation is here." 2 Cor 5: 14-17

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

The word of the Lord
All: Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel "Even the wind and the sea obey him" Mark:35-41

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Creed - The Nicene Creed
Everyone: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
