Reflections

First Reading (Acts 2:14;22-28): This is part of a sermon preached by Peter to the Jews on the feast of Pentecost. It shows that the resurrection of Jesus from the dead is the very heart of the Good News.

Second Reading (1 Peter 1:17-21): The benefits we enjoy as Christians were won by Christ through the shedding of his blood. We must try to respond with a life of holiness.

Gospel (Luke 24: 13-35): This contains the story of two men whose dreams had been shattered when Jesus was executed, how the risen Jesus joined them and showed them that it was by dying that he entered his glory.

On Easter Sunday evening two disciples of Jesus were returning to their native village. They were filled with sadness because the man on whom they had pinned their hopes had been executed. Then the risen Jesus joined them, opened their eyes, and turned their sadness into joy. The risen Jesus stands among us as we gather in his name to celebrate the Eucharist. He will turn our sorrows into joy.

First Holy Communion

Next Sunday at 11.00 am Mass, some of our Parish Young children will be making their First Holy Communion. I would like to request that we all pray for them and for their families, that they may take this opportunity to renew their faith and to reconnect to the parish worshipping community by participating at the Sunday Masses & social events. So I look forward to welcoming them all and assure them of our prayers. My sincere thanks to Teachers and Catechists for preparing them for this special day.

FAMILY PRAYER

Heavenly Father, thank you for the gift of our family. Enlighten our hearts and minds that we may live more fully this vocation. In our daily life and work, may we reflect the self-giving love which you, O Father, eternally show us with your Son and the Holy Spirit. Let your love be evident in the peace that reigns in our homes and in the faith we profess and live. May our family always be a place of generosity, understanding, forgiveness and joy. Kindly give us the wisdom and courage to be witness to your eternal design for the family, grant that the Holy Family of Nazareth may always guide our path to holiness as a family. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen

Congratulations to Richard Hanna and Hannah Martin who will be married this weekend. Lord Bless all couples in their love of each other.
