LITURGY OF THE WORD IN BRIEF:

First Reading (Joshua 24:1-2, 15-18). Joshua tells the people that now that they have arrived in the Promised Land they have a vital decision to make - to serve the one true God or to serve idols.

Second Reading (Ephesians 5:21-32). St Paul uses the image of a marriage relationship to express the bond of love that exists between Christ and the Church.

Gospel: (John 6: 60 - 69) Many of Jesus' disciples leave him because they cannot accept his teaching. Jesus then confronts his apostles with same choice: "Will you also leave me?" Before his death Joshua said to the people: "Choose today whether you want to follow the Lord or false gods". And Jesus said to his apostles: "Will you also leave me?" In other words the people were given a choice. God, it has been said, is the greatest democrat of all. He forces no one to obey him. He leaves us free. We often abuse our freedom. We choose evil instead of good.

Safeguarding in the Archdiocese of Birmingham: SCIE Review

Archbishop Bernard Longley has commissioned a review of our current safeguarding/child protection practices in light of the National Catholic Policies and Procedures. This review is to be welcomed as a means of ensuring that our systems to protect our children and young people are as effective as possible. This review is being conducted by an independent charity called SCIE (Social Care Institute for Excellence). As part of the review, SCIE would like to speak with any individuals who have had experience with any safeguarding issues within the Archdiocese, and have experience of working with our parish safeguarding representatives and the safeguarding team at the Archdiocese. Anyone who is impacted by abuse issues can contact the safeguarding team on 0121 230 6240 (emergency out of hours 07976 516629). If you are able to contribute to this important review and share your experiences with SCIE then please contact Hugh Constant (Hugh.Constant@scie.org.uk or 020 7766 7374 or 07872 602207).
