MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Today's Word: One of the things that brings many a good project to a bad end is when cracks and divisions appear. In other words, when people fall out. As today's Gospel puts it: "Any kingdom that is divided against itself cannot stand."

First Reading (Genesis 3:9-15). Adam and Eve were tempted and fell. This reading deals with the tragic consequences of that fall.

Second Reading (2 Cor. 4:13-5:1). In the midst of his trials Paul looks to the world to come in which God will provide us with a permanent dwelling place instead of a temporary tent.

Gospel (Mark 3:20-35). In this passage we see how Jesus was misunderstood by his family and slandered by the scribes, yet he was accepted by the ordinary people.

God bless you

Canon John Y Batthula

As is tradition in the Archdiocese, parishioners are given an opportunity to contribute towards a cash gift presentation. Therefore, on Saturday, 30th June and Sunday, 1st July the second collections will be for the purpose stated. This is an opportunity to acknowledge our gratitude to him. Please also add your names to the list at the back of church for catering purposes for the buffet.

HOLY TRINITY - HETHE

SICK Please remember the following in your prayers: Becky Moyce.

PETITION AGAINST "BUFFER ZONES": SPUC has launched a petition asking the Home Secretary to oppose the introduction of "buffer zones" around abortion clinics to prevent peaceful prayerful, pro-life vigils, where help and support can be offered to vulnerable women under pressure to abort their babies. They are a denial of our democratic right to freedom of expression and there are moves to bring them in across Britain. Petition forms and leaflets are at the back of church and you are urged to sign.

THANK YOU to everyone who helped at yesterday's Jumble Sale.

TUESDAY FILMS will NOT be shown this week as the Hall is booked for the village coffee morning.

HETHE COFFEE MORNING takes place from 10.00am to-morrow (Monday) in St Philip's Hall. Do come along if you can.
