This weekend's Liturgy of the Word: Peter & Paul are the principal pillars of the Church. Today we celebrate the feast of their martyrdom. Peter was son of Jona and brother of Andrew. He was a professional fisherman from Bethsaida, a fishing town on the Lake of Galilee or Gennesaret. He might have been a follower of John the Baptist. It was his brother, Andrew, who introduced him to Jesus, and Jesus who changed his name from Simon to Cephas or Peter. Jesus made Peter the leader of his apostles. At Caesarea Philippi, he promised to make Peter the head of his Church, and the risen Jesus confirmed Peter's precedence. It was Peter's speech on the day of the Pentecost, which inaugurated the Church.

Paul, the "Apostle to the Gentiles" and the greatest apostolic missionary, was a Roman citizen by birth as he had been born in the Roman colony of Tarsus. His original name was Saul. As a Pharisee, he was sent to Jerusalem by his parents to study the Mosaic Law under the great rabbi Gamaliel. As a student, he learned the trade of tent-making. He was present at the stoning of Stephen and "consented to" this deed (Acts 8:1). But he was miraculously converted on his way to Damascus to arrest the Christians.

God bless you.
