Reflections

This Sunday is traditionally known as Good Shepherd Sunday. We will hear once more the words of that great psalm: 'The Lord is my Shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.' Christ is our Good Shepherd.

First Reading (Acts 2:14,36-41). This is the conclusion of the sermon preached by Peter on the day of Pentecost. He tells the people that Jesus, whom they crucified, has been raised up and is now the Lord. Many of his hearers repent of their sins and accept Baptism.

Second Reading (1 Peter 2:20-25). This was addressed to slaves. Peter urges them to bear their unjust sufferings with patience, as Christ, the Good Shepherd, bore his sufferings for love of us.

Gospel (John 10: 1-10). Jesus compares his love for his disciples to the love of a shepherd for his sheep.

 Parish Priest

FAMILY PRAYER

Heavenly Father, thank you for the gift of our family. Enlighten our hearts and minds that we may live more fully this vocation. In our daily life and work, may we reflect the self-giving love which you, O Father, eternally show us with your Son and the Holy Spirit. Let your love be evident in the peace that reigns in our homes and in the faith we profess and live. May our family always be a place of generosity, understanding, forgiveness and joy. Kindly give us the wisdom and courage to be witness to your eternal design for the family, grant that the Holy Family of Nazareth may always guide our path to holiness as a family. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen
