REFLECTIONS: First Reading: (Wisdom 6: 12-16) This sings the praise of wisdom. At the same time it says that wisdom can be found by all those who seek it. Second Reading: (1 Thessalonians 4: 13-18) St Paul consoles his converts at Thessalonica who are worried about the fate of their loved ones who have died. He tells them that God will raise them up as surely as he raised up Christ. Gospel: (Matthew 25: 1-13) Today's Gospel reading urges us to stay awake because we do not know the day or the hour of the Lord's coming. We are all called to be bearers of the light of Christ, lamp-carriers, if you like. But like the five foolish maids, we too are sometimes careless and irresponsible, and allow this lamp to go out or at least grow very dim. Through a spirit of prayer and watchfulness, Christ will help us to keep his light burning brightly. Canon John Y Batthula

FAMILY PRAYER: Heavenly Father, thank you for the gift of our family. Enlighten our hearts and minds that we may live more fully this vocation. In our daily life and work, may we reflect the self-giving love which you, O Father, eternally show us with your Son and the Holy Spirit. Let your love be evident in the peace that reigns in our homes and in the faith we profess and live. May our family always be a place of generosity, understanding, forgiveness and joy. Kindly give us the wisdom and courage to be witness to your eternal design for the family, grant that the Holy Family of Nazareth may always guide our path to holiness as a family. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the Holy Spirit, one God forever & ever. Amen.
