LITURGY OF THE WORD REFLECTION'S IN BRIEF:

Most people see authority as a chance to promote their own honour and glory. But Christ saw it very differently. He saw it as an opportunity to serve others. This is not easy. We naturally think of ourselves first. Even the apostles did, as we shall see in today's Gospel. We are all selfish. Every sin is a sin of selfishness. Let us ask forgiveness for putting ourselves always before others, and sometimes even before God.

First Reading (Isaiah 53:10-11). This reading tells of a man who takes on himself all the sins and sorrows of the world in order to remove them. It found its fulfilment in Christ.

Second Reading (Hebrews 4:14-16). Jesus was like us in all things except sin. Hence, he knows our weaknesses. This should make it easy for us to approach him.

Gospel (Mark 10:35-45) Jesus overturns all our values by declaring that the one who serves is the greatest. He lived this out to the full in his own life.

God bless you
